CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1. The highest Bidder to be the Buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more Bidders, the Lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

2. The Purchasers to give their names and addresses, and to pay down a cash deposit, or the whole of the Purchase-money, if required, in default of which the Lot or Lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

3. The Lots to be taken away at the Buyer's Expense and Risk upon the conclusion of the Sale, and the remainder of the Purchase-money to be absolutely paid, or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the Auctioneer, on or before delivery; in default of which the undersigned will not hold themselves responsible if the Lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the Purchaser.

4. The sale of any Article is not to be set aside on account of any error in the description, or imperfection. All articles are exposed for Public Exhibition one or more days, and are sold just as they are without recourse.

5. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of the Purchases, no Lot can, on any account, be removed during the Sale.

6. Upon failure to comply with the above conditions, the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; all Lots uncleared within three days from conclusion of Sale shall be re-sold by public or private Sale, without further notice, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at this Sale, together with all charges attending the same. This Condition is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneer to enforce the contract made at this Sale, without such re-sale, if he thinks fit.

The Fortune Teller

BY NARCISSE VIRGILE DIAZ

Height, 29 inches; width, 23½ inches. Dated 1873

[Estate of the late Charles J. Osborn]

N. Diaz

Full name, N. V. Diaz de laPeña. Born, of Spanish parentage, at Bordeaux, 1808. Lost a leg by accident in his boyhood. Began as a porcelain painter. Settled in Paris as painter of landscapes and figures. Salon medals, 1844, 1846, 1848; Legion of Honor, 1851. Died at Mentone, 1876. Diaz was the most energetic and indomitable fighter of the men of 1830, and pushed himself resolutely before the public, advocating their theories and commanding respect for them in a voice which brooked no denial. His influence, like that of his illustrious associates, is indicated by the many pupils and imitators of ability who have followed his style, without rivalling him.

Cattle

By ÉMILE VAN MARCKE

Height, 26 inches; width, 22 inches. Not dated

[Estate of the late Charles J. Osborn]

Emy van Marcke

Born at Sèvres, 1827. Employed as decorator in the porcelain factories. Encouraged by Troyon, whose pupil he became, and who induced him to set up a studio in Paris. First exhibited at the Salon, 1857. Medals, 1867, 1869, 1870, 1878; Legion of Honor, 1872. He died in 1891. Van Marcke came, after Troyon, first among the cattle painters of France. In his early works the resemblance to his master in style is marked, but the productions of his prime are thoroughly individual. He possessed the double gift of observation and composition, and his pictures, while always true to nature, display an agreeable arrangement and adaptation of the material as well. The sale of his studio effects, after his death, was one of the greatest successes ever recorded for such an event.

Landscape and Cattle

BY CONSTANT TROYON

Height, 20 inches; length, 28 inches. Dated 1859

[Estate of the late Edwin Thorne]

C. TROYON

Born at Sèvres, France, 1810. Learned the trade of a porcelain painter, was taught drawing by the flower painter Riocreux, and had some instructions from Roqueplan. Began in art as a landscape painter. First exhibited in Salon, 1833. After a journey to Holland in 1847 he began to paint cattle, with immediate success. Medals, 1838, 1840, 1846, 1848, 1855; Legion of Honor, 1849. Troyon was the perfecter of the modern school of cattle painting in France, of which Bracassat laid the foundation. His early successes as a painter of landscape enabled him to unite his studies of animals with their natural surroundings in a perfect harmony of spirit. It has been said of him that his groups of cattle are a part of the landscape, instead of the landscape being a background against which to display them, and it was by this triumph over the artificiality of the earlier animal painters that he commanded an attention from the public which he continued to enjoy until his death.

A Cavalier

BY JEAN LOUIS ERNEST MEISSONIER

Height, 11½ inches ; width, 7½ inches. Dated 1880

[Estate of the late Charles J. Osborn]

Meissonier

Born at Lyons, France, 1815. Pupil of Léon Cogniet in Paris. Earned his living, while studying painting, by designing illustrations for the publishers. Devoted himself largely to study of the Dutch old masters in the Louvre. Began by painting figure pictures on an extremely small scale. First exhibited at the Salon, 1834. Medals, 1840, 1841, 1843, 1848. Grand Medals of Honor, 1855, 1867, 1878. Legion of Honor, 1846 ; Officer, 1856 ; Commander, 1867 ; Grand Officer, 1878. Member of Institute, 1861. Member of Munich Academy, 1867. Honorary Member of Royal Academy, London, and of most Continental Academies. He is justly considered the reviver of the highest Dutch School of genre painting. Meissonier, although he painted by preference on a small scale, was not enfeebled in his technique by the minuteness of his labors. He remained until the end one of the greatest masters of anatomy and form in Europe. The test of enlargement, which has been applied to some of his smallest works, shows that they have the same breadth and strength as pictures of the largest dimensions. He died in Paris in 1891, and was buried with the greatest public honors ever shown to a French artist.
